

Starting a Nonprofit in Virginia

Tuesday, October 13, 2009

4:00 - 6:15 p.m.
3600 West Broad Street
3rd Floor (Suite 395)
Richmond, VA

Presented by the Community Tax Law Project

This workshop will present an overview of items to consider before deciding whether to pursue nonprofit status, including

- Definition of nonprofit and tax-exempt organizations
- State and federal legal requirements
- Maintaining tax-exempt status
- The benefits and costs of tax-exempt nonprofit status
- How to find out if there are other local organizations doing what yours proposes to do

Cost: $25 materials fee

Registration deadline: Thursday, October 8, 2009

For more information, contact The Community Tax Law Project at (804)358-5855 or info@ctlp.org

This workshop will be conducted by Roxanne Grossman, CTLP Staff Attorney

The Community Tax Law Project (CTLP) is a 501 (c)(3) Virginia corporation founded in 1992. CTLP assists eligible organizations in Greater Richmond and Central Virginia with nonprofit start-up matters.

www.ctlp.org